

REX ANDERSON IN JAIL ON 4 CHARGES TODAY

Rex Anderson, 20, Fairfield R. 1, listed also by police as Sherman R. Anderson, was in the county jail today sentenced to 30 days on two charges of disorderly conduct and also in default of $2,000 bail, $1,000 on a charge of surety of the peace and $1,000 on a charge of resisting arrest.

The charges against Anderson resulted from a series of events Saturday night and Sunday morning, when according to borough police, he beat his wife, ran away from police, was finally found, and then fought police as they attempted to place him in jail.

The series of events began, police said, at 9:15 o'clock Saturday night when Anderson is alleged to have struck his wife during an altercation in Race Horse Alley, near the borough highway shed.

Arrested Early Sunday

Borough police said they arrived at the scene to find Mrs. Anderson lying in the alley and Anderson running away. At that time, they said, she refused to bring a charge against her husband, but one of the officers, from what he had seen of the altercation, decided to bring a charge of disorderly conduct.

Police escorted Mrs. Anderson to her room in the Adams House, and then next became involved in the case about 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

At that time Anderson was, according to police, "pulling" his wife up Baltimore St. As they passed the police car Mrs. Anderson shouted to the police for assistance. They took Anderson into custody and one member of the force escorted her to her home, while the other two restrained Anderson, and told him they planned to arraign him on a disorderly conduct charge.

As Anderson was being placed in the police car he broke away, and chased by police, ran down the alley between Bender's Cut Rate and the Thrift Plan establishments.

Police followed on foot as Anderson ran to between Liberty and Third Sts. There he crossed a lawn to Middle St. police till following and police lost sight of him as he ran into yards on the south side of E. Middle St.

Anderson was being placed in the police car he broke away, and chased by police, ran down the alley between Bender's Cut Rate and the Thrift Plan establishments.

Anderson, they said, was quiet until they reached the door of the jail. As they attempted to take him into the jail he "put up a fight," police said, and had to be subdued before he could be gotten into the jail.

This morning when police arraigned him before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore on the two disorderly conduct and resisting arrest charges, his wife also brought the surety of the peace charge against him.

He pleaded guilty to be disorderly and resisting arrest and was held for court on the surety of the peace and for sentence on resisting arrest.

WOMAN IS HURT, $750 DAMAGE IN "CHAIN" CRASH

Damage totalled $750 and a woman received minor injuries when three cars collided 3 miles south of the Gettysburg borough line on Saturday, including 168 in six buses. A total of 2,907 visited the cemetery Sunday, including 331 in 11 buses.

State police said a car not involved in the crash had stopped because a 4,600-volt electric line had been blown by a windstorm to the highway. As a result of the break in the line one-way traffic was maintained at the site for nearly two hours during the period when the live wire was on the highway and later when light company crews were engaged in repairing the break.

Sophie C. Revelas, 39, Lockport, N.Y., halted her vehicle behind the first car in the line. George R. Stouffer, 25, Waynesboro, R. 1, stopped behind her vehicle and then, police said, John Popovich, 27, Branch Dale, next in line, failed to stop in time and struck the Stouffer vehicle in the rear forcing it into the Revelas car.

Miss Margaret Moran, 65, Branch Dale, a passenger in the Popovich car, suffered shock and minor injuries. Damage to the Popovich sedan was estimated at $350, to the Stouffer car, $275 and to the Revelas vehicle, $125. The first car in line was not struck, police said.

Baschore after he admitted to them, they said, that he started a fire Saturday afternoon in two mattresses at his home along the Emmitsburg Rd.

The charge was brought to hold the youth pending further disposition of the case. He had previously been in a state hospital, and prior to Saturday's occurrence local officials had been seeking to have him placed in another institution.

Local firemen were called to the scene when a passing motorist saw smoke coming from the second story of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rosenstein, parents of the youth, and stopped at a neighbor's home to ask them to call the fire department.

Arriving at the scene the firemen found two mattresses and bedroom furniture afire. They extinguished the fire, which was confined to the bedroom.

Firemen called state police who questioned the youth. He told them, they said, that he started the fire by placing cardboard on the mattresses.

ANSWER FILED IN DISPUTE OVER M'NAIR ESTATE

Two children of the late Scott H. McNair, well-known Emmitsburg district farmer, have filed an answer in Frederick County Equity Court denying that their father made any agreement during his lifetime to leave the bulk of his estate to a stepson, Dallas Sonny McNair. The answer was filed on behalf of Scott T. McNair and Dula M. Welty, who were named as respondents individually and as administrators of the estate of their father in equity proceedings entered recently by Dallas McNair. Two other children were also named as respondents—William G. McNair, of Carroll County, and Robert W. McNair, of Adams County, Pa.

Scott H. McNair died intestate February 22 at the age of 72. Dallas McNair is a son of a second wife, to whom McNair was married in 1935. The other four are children of the first marriage.

Claims Agreement

Dallas McNair, through his attorney, Edward D. Storm, asserted that since he was withdrawn from school after finishing the seventh grade in 1945, he had spent all his time working without pay with his mother, also deceased, and his stepfather. At the time a 117-acre farm was purchased, he says, there was an agreement between McNair and his second wife that the survivor would execute a will bequeathing their joint estate to him except for $4,000 to be divided among the four children by the first marriage.

After his mother's death, said Dallas McNair, his stepfather requested him to continue working under the same arrangement with the understanding he would get the entire estate except for $6,000 upon McNair's death.

Dallas McNair said that although the farm continued to prosper and he did more and more work, his stepfather asked him to demand no money then—that he would get it later. He said he ran the farm as an unpaid family worker with the clear understanding he would be repaid for his sacrifices by inheriting the estate.

Claims Fraud

However, Scott McNair left no will. After his death, said Dallas McNair, the four respondents took possession of the property, put up "no trespassing" signs to keep out his friends and while promising him something out of the estate for the work he had done, refused to make any definite agreement, then denied him anything when they found he had sought legal advice.

Dallas McNair said he didn't

Littlestown Girls Plan Fashion Show

LIST MEETINGS AT LITTLESTOWN

The annual fashion show will be held at the Littlestown Junior-Senior High School on Friday, April 30, 8 p.m., in the school auditorium. Clothes made by the girls of the school home economics department will be exhibited.

The show is under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Sheely, home economics instructor. A mother's day will follow the fashion show and will be held in the school cafeteria. The public is invited to attend and a small admission donation will be accepted at the door.

know he was not a son of Scott McNair until after the latter's death. He claims a fraud was perpetrated upon him because the agreement was not satisfied.

He asked the court for specific performance of contract, that the administrators pay him so much of the personal estate as may be due him and that a trustee be appointed to convey the real estate.

The answer of Scott T. McNair and Dula Welty was filed through Parsons Newman and Sherman P. Bowers, attorneys.

They said Dallas McNair had a good home and denied he grew up under the belief Scott H. McNair was his father. He worked on the farm, they said, and was paid, as well as getting board, lodging and clothing. Their father permitted him to raise his own livestock, they assert. In the last years of their father's life, they said, he paid Dallas McNair $15 a week and allowed him to retain anything else he earned.

They denied there was any understanding or agreement of any kind that the estate was to pass to Dallas McNair, or any agreement to pay him for past services or work performed because of any contract.

Following the death of his stepfather, they said, Dallas McNair continued to work on the farm for $15 a week. When personal property was sold March 27, they said, the complainant assisted and allowed the sale of certain articles belonging to him. At the time of the appraisal, they said, he pointed out articles which he owned.

There is no reason for administration of the estate to be assumed by the court, they declared, asking dismissal.

"VALUE OF LAUGHTER"

I cannot estimate the worth . . . of just a little laughter . . . a cure-all for the ills of man . . . and joy forever after . . . laughter can make a sad heart gay . . . fostering love and cheer . . . for smiling faces always make . . . the dark clouds disappear . . . laughter is like a pleasant tune . . . sweet music to the ears . . . it is the one outstanding thing . . . that no matter what the trouble is . . . we'll win if we can laugh . . . whereas a frown can bring us near . . . a ghostly epitaph . . . laughter can make an ugly face . . . seem beautiful and fine . . . yes, laughter is a priceless thing . . . contagious yet divine . . . though this is true, still it is hard . . . to find a laughing face . . . for somehow most folks seem to think . . . laughter is out of place.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

A NEW U.S. POSTAGE STAMP

One of the most beautiful postage stamps ever issued by the Government at Washington is its new 8-cent stamp, created primarily for Foreign mail. It is unusual for its three colors (red, white and blue) and for the fact that for the first time the phrase "In God We Trust" appears on a U. S. postage stamp. These words have long appeared on U. S. coins.

The United States is a religious nation, regardless of its many faults, and it wants the entire world to know that "In God We Trust." There is significance to this stamp. When it is attached to a letter that letter may contain anything its writer pleases to place here. That message is respected. It contains the free expression of its sender to whom it is addressed. Except in rare cases in time of war, or for security reasons, the thoughts underneath this new stamp remain inviolate.

None of us can measure, or adequately speculate, as to the influence for freedom that this new stamp may exert. We may well guess that in every foreign land it will be noted and meditated upon.
Especially by those now enslaved or whose thoughts must be kept to themselves. This new stamp, in its silent manner, emphasizes the sacredness and pride in which all who have freedom, rejoice.

The American Postmaster General is to be congratulated on his sponsorship of this beautiful stamp, and all that it conveys. I watched and listened to the TV exercises upon the occasion of the releasing of this stamp and was stirred by the many speeches, including that of President Eisenhower. It is to be hoped that no one will ever place this stamp upon a letter without its significance.

For just so long as "In God
We Trust" remains in our hearts, and continues as a fact in our lives, we are granted an assurance that any nation can have. Never before has so important a postage stamp been issued!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "That Hidden You" Protected, 1954, George Matthew Adams Service.

ROADS

Roads are footsteps multiplied.

From little paths they grew.
Time was the busy highways wide.

Were traveled by the few.

But one by one the footstep made.

A line from place to place,
Then signs were raised and pavements laid

To serve man's swifter pace.

Thus, easily I travel on
From town to town today

Reading the sign posts, one by one,

Which tell the certain way.

Men of a hundred years or more
In shadowy lines I see

Who made this journey long before,

And left this path for me.

When from my shoulders falls
the load

And life on earth is o'er,

My soul shall fare that last long road

Of all who've gone before.

SHARP QUAKE HITS CENTRAL CALIFORNIA

WATSONVILLE, Calif. (AP) — Central California's strongest earthquake in nearly two years jolted a 150-mile stretch along the West coast yesterday, frightening thousands, causing widespread minor damage to buildings and temporarily blocking a highway east of here.

A panicked crowd of some 500 rushed for the doorways of a dog show at the fairgrounds five miles north of here, bruising an unidentified 16-year-old girl. She was the only injury reported.

The shocks, recorded by the University of California seismograph for 20 minutes starting at 1:33:47.5 p.m., PDT, were felt throughout the San Francisco Bay area, 90 miles to the north.

"Worst Quake Ever"

The UC seismograph at Berkeley registered an intensity of 5.2 on the 10-point Richter Scale, compared to more than 7 for the 1952 Kern County quake in which five died and 84 were for the disastrous 1906 San Francisco quake.

Dr. Perry Byerly, university seism-ologist, said the shocks centered about 75 miles south of Berkeley.
Reports indicated the towns of Hollister, Gilroy and Watsonville got the worst shaking.

Soldiers Live It Up At Bavarian Resort

GWIMISCH - PARTENKIRCHEN,
Germany (AP) — Being a GI on duty in this Bavarian mountain city is as tough as getting $10 bills free.
Most soldiers here look like recruiting ads.

A big U. S. Army rest and recrehandling soldier visitors. But for the boys whose job it is to stay here a weekend pass can mean anything from a chalet hunt to a 60-mile an hour trip down a mountain on skis.

And the night time is not neglected. One big club features a dance floor which is dismantled every night while an ice skating rink cements before dining GIs.

One soldier cracked as he slipped a Stein of foaming Bavarian beer:

"Yeah, I suppose I'll be going home one of these days — when I'm 80 years old!"

Shakes—converge in this area.

In Watsonville, a lettuce-growing center of 11,000, Police Sgt. J. G.

I've ever felt in my life—worse than the one in Santa Barbara when I was living there several years ago." Police estimated damage roughly at from $25,000 to $40,000.

DIEN BIEN PHU REELING UNDER BOMBARDMENT

HANOI, Indochina. (P)—Dien Bien Phu reeled under violent Vietminh bombardment today but the French said the rebels still held off their long-expected third mass assault to engulf the battered northwest Indochina fortress.

The tightly packed French Union defenders, driven into a cluster of fortifications less than a mile and a quarter across, were in an "extremely serious but not desperate" position, the French reported last night. Today they said the situation was "unchanged."

Informants in radio contact with the isolated, encircled plain said the morale of the garrison troops was "sky high" as they braced themselves for the bloody hand-to-hand fighting they hoped desperately would hold back another all-out enemy attempt to sway the Geneva conference on Asian problems.

Seek Propaganda Victory

The rebels leveled their heaviest mortar and artillery fire on the northwestern corner of the shrunken Dien Bien Phu redoubt. This was an attempt to rip bigger holes in the crumbling defenses in the northwest, opening a floodgate for the masses of Vietminh infantrymen waiting to sweep down from the surrounding hills.

The French command said the rebels maintained their "pressure" on the fortress' new defense line in that sector, established about 300 feet east of the rebel trenches. But the French said the attackers had not been able to infiltrate the defenders' lines last night and were still 600 yards from Brig. Gen. Christian de Castries' command headquarters.

A Vietminh broadcast heard in Hanoi crowed that the opposing forces would be "face to face very soon" in a death struggle. The an Indochina settlement.

WASHINGTON (P)—Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa) told the Daughters of American Revolution Thursday night that the cost of government on all levels has spiraled in the last 25 years "because we are shirking our individual responsibility."

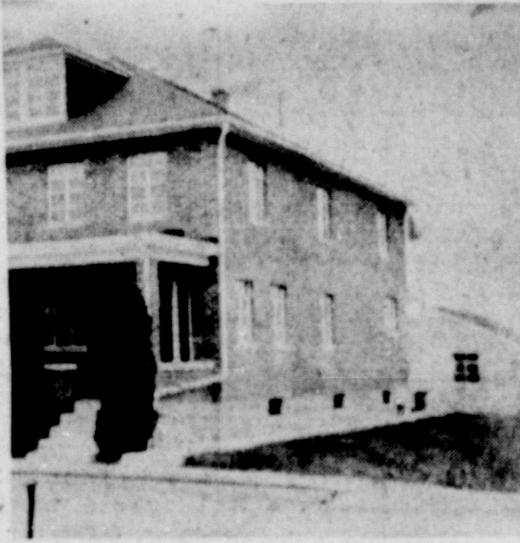

Speaking at the DAR's 63rd continental congress, Martin said: "If America is to be preserved as the greatest nation in history, our people must stop leaning on the government and stand once more on their own feet as our forefathers did."

threat appeared to back up belief the rebels' Communist leaders were preparing to throw everything into one more attempt to wipe out Dien Bien Phu. This would give the Reds a resounding propaganda victory to back up their claims at Geneva, where an attempt may be made to negotiate an Indochina settlement.

NFIP APPROVES POLIO VACCINE TESTING TODAY

By FRANK CAREY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The test of the new polio vaccine in selected areas across the nation got under way today.

Final sanction of the tests was given late yesterday by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis after an advisory committee of polio experts had recommended the go-ahead following a two-day appraisal, primarily for the standpoint of safety.

The U. S. Public Health Service also approved the decision, which stipulated certain conditions for use of the vaccine first developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk of the University of Pittsburgh.

The foundation's action released stocks of vaccine which already had been delivered to 20 of the 45 states scheduled to participate. Vaccine for the other states is expected to be delivered in a fairly short time.

WILL TEST 500,000

Officials estimated that approximately 500,000 children in some 170 communities of the 45 states eventually will receive the vaccine, with 400,000 others receiving inoculations with an inert substance.

These latter children will be among youngsters who will be used as "controls" for the test—an evaluation report on which is not expected before late in the fall.

The vaccine has shown an ability to stimulate the body's production of antibodies of the type deemed protective against polio, it remains to be seen whether it can actually protect against an attack by virus under natural conditions—and that's why the nationwide field trials are being held.

The first inoculations today are in areas of Alabama, Colorado, Virginia, Nevada, Utah and Washington.

SEA ISLE CITY, N. J. (AP) — Joseph Hergesheimer, prolific novelist who shunned soft "social" living, is dead at 74.

The noted author, who turned out 20 novels in as many years between 1914 and 1934, died yesterday in Mercy Hospital after a brief illness.

For the past 10 years, he lived in Stoneharbor, which is about six miles south of this Atlantic Ocean resort town in southern New Jersey. His widow Dorothy survives.

STEAL PATROL CAR

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Elan Angstadt and Raymond Fabian were a couple of mighty embarrassed patrolmen yesterday. Somebody drove off with their patrol car while they were booking six prisoners.

Ninety minutes later Angstadt and Fabian — on foot — stumbled across the missing car seven or eight blocks from the station house. But by that time their plight had been broadcast all over town in an all-cars bulletin.

Officials estimated that approximately 500,000 children in some 170 communities of the 45 states eventually will receive the vaccine, with 400,000 others receiving inoculations with an inert substance.

MAJOR PARTIES START FINAL 3 WEEKS OF DRIVE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Democratic and Republican organization-backed candidates for nomination at the May 18 primary began their final three weeks of campaigning today.

Opposing candidates for both parties have been concentrating on personal speaking appearances, largely meeting local leaders rather than addressing rallies of voters.

Forty-two northern and western Pennsylvania counties were covered last week by the GOP organization-backed candidates who spoke with county chairmen and vice chairmen in each area.

Top Democratic candidates made their appearances in eastern Pennsylvania.

Thomas S. Stephenson, "home rule" candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, will be interviewed tonight on the Capitol Correspondents' television program at Harrisburg.

"Streamline Government" Dr. William D. McClelland, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, said yesterday in Pittsburgh that "streamlining the state government, to effect economy, is an absolute necessity."

The Allegheny County coroner said in a statement the functions of the various state departments must be consolidated "in order to abolish the sales tax and to prevent a state income tax."

State Sen. George M. Leader (D-York) is the Democratic organization-backed candidate for the chief executive post.

"He (Sen. Leader) was enthusiastically received wherever he went and obtained hundreds of pledges of support," said Patrick E. Kerwin, Democratic primary campaign committee chairman.

Otto F. Messner, GOP campaign chairman, said of last week's tour: "We had expected a cordial and favorable reception but the enthusiasm which we encountered was greater than anything we expected."

Leader will tour western Pennsylvania this week while Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood, GOP candidate for governor, will head toward eastern Pennsylvania with a group of organization-sanctioned candidates.

This week's program for the organization candidates:

Democrats

Today—Pittsburgh for the Allegheny County Jefferson Day Dinner and New Kensington, meeting of western Pennsylvania municipal officials.

Tomorrow—Uniontown to meet Fayette County leaders.

Wednesday—Emporia, Cameron County.

Friday—Dinner with Mifflin County Democrats at Lewistown.

Saturday—Gallitzin to attend the annual Cambria County Jefferson Day Dinner.

Republicans

Today—Easton to meet with leaders of Northampton, Pike, Monroe, Carbon and Lehigh counties; Lebanon, Schuylkill, Berks, and Lancaster counties.

Tomorrow—Harrisburg for luncheon with party leaders of Dauphin, Mifflin, Perry, Juniata, Cumberland, Franklin, Adams, York and Northumberland counties.

This meeting will end a 10-day gop tour of the state.

Roy E. Furman, Waynesburg, organization-backed candidate for lieutenant-governor, and Miss Genevieve Blatt, Pittsburgh, candidate for secretary of internal affairs, will appear with Leader at several places.

Making the GOP trip with Wood are Atty-Gen. Frank F. Truscott, for lieutenant-governor; Mrs. Gaynell M. Dixon, Butler, for secretary of internal affairs; Judge George W. Griffith, Ebensburg, and former Judge Ralph T. Bell, Pittsburgh, both for Superior Court judgeships.

Police said vandals smashed filing cabinets, rifled desks and left papers strewn about the offices in a raid early yesterday.

BOY IS KILLED IN STATION WAGON CRASH

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa. (AP) — A 15-year-old boy was killed and his younger companion was injured yesterday in a station wagon that struck a pole near here.

State police said they were chasing the vehicle, which had been reported stolen earlier, and at the time of the crash the boys were traveling at a speed of 80 miles an hour.

Robert Kunkle was killed instantly. Physicians at Phoenixville Hospital said the sharp edge of one of his fractured ribs pierced his heart.

His 14-year-old companion, Jerry Lamoreaux, also of Phoenixville, suffered a possible skull fracture and lacerations of the head and face.

The couple had been vacationing in Florida.

Miss Hayworth was reunited with the children in the modest White Plains home of Mrs. Dorothy Chambers, their governess. Mrs. Chambers described the actress as dreadfully upset.

RITA AND ALY KHAN MAY MEET

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — Rita Hayworth, "dreadfully upset," came here today to fight charges she neglected her two daughters.

His attorney, Charles Torem, said the prince expected to meet Miss Hayworth.

She and her present husband, crooner Dick Haymes, drove to White Plains shortly after midnight from Washington, where they first learned of the charges brought by Westchester County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

The couple had been vacationing in Florida.

Miss Hayworth was reunited with the children in the modest White Plains home of Mrs. Dorothy Chambers, their governess. Mrs. Chambers described the actress as

"so upset she was ill."

"I have no comment on the whole situation," the prince said at Idlewild Airport, but he added he would "try to find out" about it.

The prince is the father of Yasmin, 4, the younger of Miss Hayworth's two children.

Another former husband, actor Orson Welles, is the father of the other child, Rebecca, 9.

Cubage: House 29,500 ft.
Garage 4,000 ft.
Dimensions 59'x39'

Featuring an unusually attractive exterior, "The Minnesota," offered today by the Home of the Week Plan Service, is specifically designed to be built on a sloping lot. This modern home also has a special appeal for prospective home owners with growing families, because "The Minnesota" contains a second story which can be finished at your convenience.

With overall dimensions of 59'x39', "The Minnesota" has a cubage of 29,500 feet. Cubage of the garage is 4,000 feet. At least a 90 foot lot would be required to build the house plus the attached garage.

On the upper level at the front of the house is the unusually spacious living room. Measuring 20'x18', the living room boasts a wealth of windows which make this room unusually bright and cheerful; they make it ideally suitable for a gathering place for friends and family. Adding to this impression of cheerful friendliness and also providing decorative interest for the room is the large fireplace centered in the front wall.

Since the front door opens directly into the central hallway it's not necessary to go through the living room to get from one room in the house to another. Stairs also lead from this hallway to the basement and to the second story of "The Minnesota." And stairs also lead from this hallway to the rear section of the house built on the lower level of the lot.

The den or guest room, which is so designed that it may be used as a library-den, can serve as a regular bedroom until such time as you have the second story of "The Minnesota" completed. Since the room contains two closets, storage will present no problem, whatever the use to which the room is put.

Thoroughly modern and carefully planned, the kitchen is comfortably large; it contains a good sized breakfast nook in addition to an abundance of storage cupboards and cabinets as well as counter space.

Upstairs, space is provided for two bedrooms and an all-modern bath. Both bedrooms enjoy good lighting and cross ventilation. There is also ample closet storage space in each of the rooms.

No space is provided in the house proper for the laundry. Therefore your laundry equipment should be placed in the basement, under either the kitchen or the lavatory. The heating plant should be installed under the living room.

As with all two level houses "The Minnesota" offers unusual opportunities to achieve unusual decorative effects both inside and out. The clever homemaker will make the most of these opportunities.

First Home Garden Feast Is Radishes And Onions

To sow the first seeds in the spring is adventure only exceeded in enjoyment by reaping the first harvest from the seeds which you have sown. You will not have long to wait for the harvest if you sow radish seed, and plant onion sets.

In three weeks you can serve both pungent vegetables to the family and let them know they are from your garden.

The thrill of the first harvest is one of the pleasantest of the whole garden year. No one should miss it, but the experienced gardener learns that the sowing of radishes, at least, can easily be overdone. The onions will keep growing and are usable at all stages of growth, but early radishes quickly pass the edible stage and become pithy.

The early type, such as Scarlet Globe, matures in three weeks, and in another week loses quality, so if you have not used them all, there will be a sad waste of good radishes and garden space.

To avoid waste, sow not more than seven feet of row each week until hot weather approaches; or double the sowing, but use a second early, such as Icicle, and start using it when half-grown. For hot weather, sow one of the long, slow growing varieties; and in mid-summer put in the winter varieties, which are largest of all, but good quality and can be used until Christmas.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Card of Thanks 2

CAREY: We wish to extend our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for the cards received after the death of our baby, Mr. & Mrs. WILLIAM CAREY

In Memoriam 3

In loving remembrance of our dear son, Clyde W. Musselman, who left this world one year ago today, April 26, 1953.

"Sad and sudden was the call of one so dearly loved by all, A bitter grief, a shock severe, It was to part with one so dear, Dearest Clyde, how we miss you Since from earth you passed away And our hearts are aching sorely As we think of you each day.

The weary days of life roll on, I can see your vacant chair And the loving smiling face Of the one who once sat there. Just a thought of sweet remembrance.

Just a heartache just for you As the tears fall in silence And a yearning just for you." Sadly missed by Mother and Dad Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Musselman

In sad remembrance of our husband and daddy, Clyde W. Musselman, who departed from this earth one year ago today, April 26, 1953. "Broken is the family circle, Our dear one has passed away; Passed from earth and earthly darkness,

Into bright and perfect day. But we must all cease to languish O'er the grave of him we love, Strive to be prepared to meet him in the better world above. If we had seen you to the last And held your dying hand, And heard the last sight from your heart,

We would not feel so bad. We did not know the pain you had. We did not see you die, We only know you went far away And never said goodbye."

Sadly missed by wife and boys, Della, Jackie, and Bonnie

LittlestownSAMUEL SNYDER
RENAME THIRD
DISTRICT HEAD

Samuel J. Snyder, of St. Luke's Church, near White Hall, was re-elected president of the Third District Sunday School Association at the annual spring convention on Sunday evening in Redeemer's Reformed Church, Littlestown.

Other officers selected were vice president, Mervin K. Myers, Christ Church, Littlestown; secretary: Dolores Rae Reindollar, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Littlestown, and treasurer, David E. St. John's Lutheran Church, Littlestown.

Superintendents of the various departments selected were children's division, Miss Bernice Curnens; adult division, Charles M. A. Shildt; young people's division, Glenn E. Unger; Evangelism, the Rev. William C. Karns; Christian Education, Elmer Shildt; missionary department, Chester S. Byers; temperance division, the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds; home division, Glenn C. Bowers; school administration, Samuel H. Higinbotham; organized Bible classes, Harry Baker; song leader, the Rev. David S. Kammerer, and pianist, Miss Evelyn Harget. The nominating committee consisted of Glenn Bowers, chairman, Harry Baker and the Rev. William C. Karns. Alonso M. LaVenture, president of the Adams County Sunday School Association, installed the officers.

Give Awards

The attendance banner awarded on a percentage basis of weekly attendance at Sunday School and attendance at the spring rally was presented to Bart's EUB Church, with Christ Reformed church in second place.

The theme of this year's convention was "Youth of Today" and the speaker, the Rev. Dr. Russell Oyer, of Lohr's EUB Church, Hanover, used this theme as the topic for his message. The program included a song service, led by the Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Littlestown. Miss Barbara Swann, organist at the host church, presided at the console. Scripture was read by the Rev. William C. Karns; and prayer offered by the Rev. Dr. George Bowersox, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, McSherrystown. Special vocal selections, "Whispering Hope" and "Beautiful Saviour," were rendered by a high school male quartet composed of Terry Brown, William Simons, Ronald Strevins and Dean Sell, with Marilyn Spangler as accompanist.

President Snyder announced that there will be a young people's retreat at Camp Thompson on July 2, 3 and 4 and anyone in the district interested in attending the retreat is asked to contact the president. It was also announced that the Adams County Sunday School convention will be held this year at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Littlestown, on Sunday, June 20.

Special Music

The choir of Redeemer's Church, under the direction of Samuel H. Higinbotham, sang an anthem "God So Loved the World" from "The Crucifixion" by Sir John Stainer. The offering was in charge of the Rev. Harvey B. Simons, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, and benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Oscar E. Feeman, pastor of St. Luke's and Grace Lutheran Church. The convention was largely attended by representatives of the following schools in the Third District: St. Paul's Lutheran, St. John's Lutheran, Christ Reformed, Redeemer's Reformed and Centenary Methodist, Littlestown; St. Paul's Lutheran, McSherrystown; Bart's EUB, Hanover, R. 1; St. James' Reformed, along the Harney Road; Good Shepherd Reformed, Hoffman Orphanage; St. Paul's Lutheran, Hanney; Mt. Joy Lutheran, Gettysburg, R. D.; Grace Lutheran, Two Taverns, St. Mark's Reformed, White Run, and St. Luke's Union, near White Hall. The program committee for the convention included Stewart N. Long, chairman, H. Hearst Stover, Grant Appeler and Wilbur Rife.

Although no two eggs in the usual bird's nest are exactly alike they usually closely resemble each other.

S. GILLILAN, 84,
HUMORIST, DIES

WARRENTON, Va., April 26 (AP)—Strickland Gillilan, 84, humorist best known for his "Off Again, On Again, Gone Again, Flinnigan," died in a hospital here Sunday.

Mr. Gillilan, a one-time newspaperman, had remained active as a writer and after-dinner speaker until he broke his hip in fall about five years ago. He had been in the hospital here for the last two years.

He liked to tell of Flinnigan as a character he created when, as a reporter for the Richmond, Ind., Daily Palladium at the turn of the century, he could find no news to write. He wrote the poem to take the place of the news he couldn't find.

It was the story of a railroader who had been criticized for the long reports he made of train wrecks. So after a derailment, when Flinnigan's train had been put back on the tracks and set on its way, the railroad man sent his superiors the famed line as the briefest possible on reports.

Gillilan, a native of Jackson County, Ohio, worked on a number of newspapers from 1887 to 1905, when he branched out into free lance writing and speaking. Since that time he had divided most of his time between Washington and Baltimore.

Gillilan was well-known locally, having spoken here many times.
